

ASIF ALAM

ASPIRING SOFTWARE DEVELOPER SUMMAR

SUMMARY

I am Asif Alam, a 4th-year B.Tech student specializing in IT (Computer Science). I have a strong foundation in Java with Data Structures & Algorithms and Apex, along with basic knowledge of HTML, CSS, Git, and SQL.

My strengths include being a quick learner, problem-solving ability, teamwork, adaptability, and effective communication. I aim to begin my career as a developer and grow into a senior developer in the future.
